RULES

Venaria Reale local Authority charges the Association "AMICI PER LA MUSICA" for the advertising of XV issue of the International Music Competition "Luigi Nono", which will be held in Venaria Reale, at Concordia Theater, C.so Puccini, on October 21st, 22nd and 23rd 2011.

2011 Competition is open to musicians of any nationality provided that in the past editions they did not win the first prize of the category for which they are applying in 2011. Following categories are foreseen:

- Chamber music : any group, from duo to octet, including max. 1 piano.
- Soloists category: soloist of any instrument, piano included, eventually also with accompaniment. Musicians entered for this category are allowed to play transcriptions or reductions of concertos for soloists.

No pianist for accompaniment is made available by the organization.

All musicians, both holding and not holding the diploma, born between January 1st, 1978 and December 31st, 1996, can enter both categories.

Following documents have to be enclosed to application form:

1. Transfer to the account of AMICI PER LA MUSICA", nr. 2613350 at the bank "UNICREDIT BANCA – Venaria Branch,"

IBAN CODE IT81T02008311000002613350.

Amounts:

Euro 70,000	for Category "SOLOISTS"
Euro 110,00	for duos
Euro 135,00	for trios
Euro 160,00	for quartets
Euro 175,00	for quintets or bigger groups

2. Copy of program to be presented for both qualifying and final auditions.
3. Updated artistic Curriculum

A piano will be made available by the organization of competition: any other instrument and accessory needed for the audition should be provided by competitors. A separate room is available for instruments tuning up and short rehearsals. Before the beginning of qualifying auditions, competitors are required to show the organization secretarial staff a valid identity document and 2 copies of the scores they are going to play (kindly do not send any score along with application form). The minimum number of competitors for each category is 6. Should this number not be reached, the category will be cancelled and the enter fee will be paid back to competitors fully.

All competitors are required to undergo a qualifying audition, during which they will play a program they have chosen. Maximum time for audition is 15 minutes.

The competitors judged to be the best by the Board of Examiners (their decision is irrevocable and final) will be admitted to the final audition. Number of competitors admitted to final will be in any case not higher than 8 for each category. For the final audition, a different program has to be presented. Maximum time for final audition is 20 minutes.

The execution times of both auditions could be reduced according to number of competitors.

The boards of Examiners reserves the right either to stop the audition at any time or to ask for repetition of parts of it, during both qualifying and final auditions.

Any boards of examiners' decision is final and irrevocable.

Competitors can present compositions of any historical period. Competitors are allowed to present transcriptions of concertos for soloists only in Soloists Category.

Qualifying auditions will be held on October 21st, and 22nd, 2010. Final auditions will be held on October 23rd.

All winners are required to play in the evening concert on October 23rd; the winners who should refuse to be present at the concert, can be excluded by the prizes.

Program and players sequence will be defined by the Board of Examiners and notified to the musicians during the call of the winners.

The Board of Examiners could invite other competitors to join the evening concert on October 23rd.

Any examiner belonging to Board of Examiner who has a relationship (as a teacher, a relative, or a friend) with one or more competitors, must refrain from being present at said competitors' audition.

In case the Board of Examiners decides that no competitor is eligible, one or more prizes might not be assigned.

In case of "ex-aequo" winners, the prize will be shared.

Any decision of Board of Examiners will be valid even in case one Examiner is missing.

All participants will be given a Certificate of Presence to the Competition.

No private video/sound recording is allowed during all auditions.

No payment can be asked by competitors either for prize concert or for video/sound shots taken by the organization staff and further uses. ONLY Expenses born for prize concerts will be refunded.
